The Ranch

Formerly known as the Smoky Lake Reserve, The Wilderness Reserve continues preserving and encouraging the longstanding tradition of hunting and fishing. For over 5 decades this reserve has been one of the largest historic and premier hunting preserves in the United States.

Our dedicated team strives to rejuvenate and enhance this magical property, keeping the wilderness experience available to all. See for yourself how this historic wilderness will capture your heart and inspire your soul.

With 5,500 acres of quality managed habitat, The Wilderness Reserve hunting estate provides hunters with a challenging, natural and unrivaled environment for their trophy Elk, Whitetail, and upland bird hunts. The vast acreage of this preserve allows Elk and Whitetail to roam freely through the forests, marshes, and fields giving hunters the challenge of a fair chase hunt.

Experience the wilderness in its natural state, preserved through time. Explore miles of trails, forests, and lakes to capture exciting, panoramic vistas while you enjoy the outdoor activity of your choosing year-round! The tranquil, picturesque landscape offers a serene escape from the distractions of everyday life. Discovering this timeless treasure will leave you with memories for a lifetime.

The Lodging

The Lodge is a perfect setting for weddings, hunting retreats, special events, and family gatherings. The Lodge provides the splendor of Northwoods charm with its knotty pine interior and wood burning stove while providing the modern conveniences of high speed internet and satellite HD TV. Along with plenty of space for special events or business meetings, The Lodge also has 5 bedrooms.

Our 5,500 acre property features 4 unique, secluded cabins for our guests. Our private cabins are each on their own picturesque lake and surrounded by nature. Each cabin has a wood burning fireplace to enjoy a warm, comfortable evening. There are outdoor fire pits at each cabin to do campfire cooking or take in the breathtaking starry sky. Each cabin has a 12' fishing rowboat for your lake enjoyment.
